MR. CARLIN VICTORIOUS.

While all the supporters of Mr. C. O. Carlin were optimistic concerning the outcome of yesterday's primary election, but few supposed the result would prove to be a veritable landslide in his favor, as was the case. Early in the night, however, from the fragmentary returns received, there was every reason to suppose he had been nominated to succeed himself in Congress by a safe majority. Many friends of the successful candidate gathered in and in front of his office on north Fairfax street where dispatches from different points in the district were being received.

The announcement of the vote in Alexandria city elevated the spirits of his adherents greatly. He had received 1,550 votes as against 56 for Mr. R. L. Gordon.

The result in Alexandria county sent the enthusiasm higher. In this county, which Mr. Carlin lost last year, he received yesterday a majority of 204 votes. Culpeper county gave him a majority of 281; Fairfax county, 605; Loudoun county, 420; Fauquier county, 237; Prince William county, 332; King George, 50, and Stafford, 54.

These figures showed there had been a tidal wave in his favor and that while Mr. Gordon had carried two counties in the district—Louisa and Orange—Mr. Carlin's majority would be somewhere between 2,500 and 3,000.

There were many people on the streets, and the result of the election was the principal theme of conversation. The comparatively few supporters of Mr. Gordon took his defeat good-naturedly and as good democrats.

Mr. Carlin, who was at his office most of the time, was being given a hearty ovation, and notwithstanding the enthusiasm no one showed the effects of conviviality and the best of feeling prevailed. The only person arrested by the police during the day and night was a dejected, half-clad negro who ran into the station house in order to avoid imaginary enemies.

Mr. Stringfellow, of Culpeper, one of Mr. Gordon's lieutenants, who was mingling with the assemblage in front of Mr. Carlin's office, was called upon for a speech. He responded and said that Mr. Gordon had put up a game fight, but had been fairly beaten, and assured his hearers that the Gordon faction would help to roll up for Mr. Carlin in the general election the largest vote ever received by a democratic candidate for Congress in the Eighth district of Virginia.

Mr. Carlin later appeared in front of his office and was greeted with vociferous cheers. When quiet had been restored he thanked the people of his home city and the entire district for the splendid support they had given him, and said that he had only the kindest feeling for his opponent. He said that he did not blame Mr. Gordon personally for many of the unkind things that had developed during the campaign, but that Mr. Gordon had been the victim of unfortunate advisers, and called attention to the fact that he had carried the voting precinct by a vote of three to one of every man who had given Mr. Gordon aid and comfort.

He said he had also carried Alexandria county, the home county of some of his bitterest assailants.

Mr. Carlin was loudly cheered and was escorted to his residence by the crowd, whose cheers were enhanced by music furnished by a drum corps.

It was after midnight before the streets resumed their normal quiet condition.

The following is the official vote in this city for the candidates for Congress:

CANDIDATES.

	First Ward.	Second Ward.	Third Ward.	Fourth Ward.
C. C. Carlin	365	406	388	367

THE COUNTY.

In Alexandria county a total of 424 votes were cast, of which Carlin received 314 and Gordon received 110, giving Carlin a majority of 204 votes.

The vote by districts was as follows: Jefferson district—Carlin, 86; Gordon, 18. Arlington district—Carlin, 157; Gordon, 52. Washington district—Carlin, 71; Gordon, 39.

Mayor Supple was re-elected mayor of the new town of Potomac over Henry J. Kremer by a vote of 24 to 17. For town clerk George W. Zschery defeated J. E. Marcher by a vote of 23 to 9. Treasurer W. U. Varney was re-elected without opposition, receiving 42 votes. I. W. Burrell was re-elected town sergeant without opposition, his vote being 43.

The following were elected members of the town council: W. E. Kidwell, W. T. Emerson, H. H. Powell, J. A. Carpenter, Edmund Clark, C. A. Campbell. All of the members were opposed and the fight was intense.

Below is a tabulated statement of the vote in the Eighth Congressional district, with the exception of King George and Stafford, for Hon. C. C. Carlin and Mr. R. Lindsey Gordon, candidates for Congress:

	CARLIN.	GORDON.
Alexandria city	1,551	56
Alexandria county	314	110
Fairfax county	605	204
Prince William	332	56
Fauquier	237	12
Loudoun	420	483
Orange	211	707
Culpeper	281	454
Stafford	54	153
Total	6,332	3,073

Carlin's majority, 2,679.

Estimated majorities for Mr. Carlin in the missing counties will probably be: Stafford, 54; King George, 52. This will give Mr. Carlin a majority of 2,735, and the official count may increase his lead beyond 2,800.

SUNDAY SCHOOL CONVENTION.

The forty-second annual session of the Sunday school convention of the Baltimore Conference of the Methodist Episcopal Church South commenced last night in the Young People's Building of the Methodist Episcopal Church South. There was a large attendance of delegates and others. Rev. J. H. Light, of Front Royal, delivered the annual sermon.

SUDDEN DEATH.

Mr. Gottlieb Kiecher, an old and well-known resident, died suddenly at the home of his son, Mr. Charles Kiecher, northeast corner of Prince and Lee street, about 7 o'clock yesterday evening. He was seated on the porch when death overtook him. He had been a sufferer from Bright's disease for some time. Mr. Kiecher was born at Baden-Baden, Germany, seventy-four years ago. He came to this country when he was about twenty years old and in 1853 took up his residence in Fairfax county near this city. For a long time he was employed by the late George Bossert. For many years he conducted a butcher stand in the conducted a butcher stand in the city market, but he was relieved by a severe stroke. He is survived by a daughter, Mrs. Kate Simpson, and sons, George, Frederick, Charles, Lewis and Henry Kiecher. The funeral will take place Friday, and the remains will be interred at the old homestead of the family in Fairfax county.

A HANDSOME TABLE.

One of the prettiest tables on exhibition in this city is in the window of Kaufmann Bros. store. It is made entirely of glass and is beautifully ornamented with labels taken from cigars. The table was constructed by Mr. Henry C. Olson, an employee of the Virginia State Deposit and Trust Company.

REV. PHILLIP SIDERSKY TO SPEAK.

In the absence of the pastor who preaches in Washington, tonight, Rev. Jas. H. Taylor, of Washington, will preside at the prayer meeting at the Second Presbyterian Church. He will introduce Rev. Phillip Sidersky, a converted Jew, who is doing a wonderful work among the Jews in Baltimore. He preaches to them in Hebrew and Yiddish and often illustrates his talks with the stereopticon. Mr. Sidersky tonight will be heard for the first time in this city, and there are many who have an interest in his work. It is said that there are now about twelve million Jews in the world, of whom about two million live in America. It is said that over 11,000 Jews have gone over to Christianity in America during the last century. These and many other interesting facts to the Jew and Gentile alike will be brought out by Mr. Sidersky. He will speak in English tonight. The public is cordially invited.

POLICE COURT.

There were but two cases before the Police Court this morning. A white man, who is suspected of insanity, had been arrested by Officer Arrington. He was committed for further examination. A colored man, who lives in the southeastern section of the city, had been arrested by Officer Sherwood on a similar charge. The sheriff ran into the station house last night in scant attire and implored protection from imaginary enemies. This morning he was almost nude, he having virtually divested himself of his clothing. He was committed for a future hearing.

INJURED BY CATRIFLE.

George Jackson, a colored boy, living in the southern section of the city, had his right eye seriously injured by a ball from a catrifle yesterday. He was taken to the Alexandria Hospital for treatment. The catrifle nuisance is a cause of constant complaint. A colored boy killed a chicken belonging to a neighbor with one of these dangerous playthings in the same locality a few days ago. It is hoped the police will disarm every boy caught with these weapons and confiscate them.

WANTED TO DROWN HIMSELF.

Charles E. Lloyd jumped overboard from the wharf at the foot of Fayette alley this morning with suicidal intent. Some men who were standing near and witnessed the rash act rescued Lloyd after some difficulty. He was in an exhausted condition, and it was supposed at first that his resuscitation was impossible, but upon being carried to the Alexandria Hospital he revived. It is said that shortly before Lloyd jumped overboard a saloonkeeper had refused to sell him liquor.

LOCAL BREVITIES.

The Alexandria delegates to the state democratic convention will leave tonight for Roanoke.

The governor has commissioned Hunston Ory a major of the Seventeenth regiment.

Miss Elizabeth Todd Robins, of Richmond, and Mr. Maurice Luan, a wealthy widower of Pittsburgh, will be married in Richmond on June 27.

Rev. Dr. W. E. Hatcher yesterday resigned as president of Richmond College and Mr. J. Taylor Ellyson was elected to succeed him.

Thomas Lowry, who for 30 years has been one of the federal customs officials at Norfolk, died yesterday afternoon at Mecklenburg Springs, aged 62 years.

Judge Waddill, of the United States District Court, has entered an order directing the sale at public auction of the Inside Inn at the Jamestown Exposition grounds.

Mr. John W. Johnson, widow of ex-Senator Johnson, of Abingdon, and mother of Dr. George Ben Johnson, of Richmond, died yesterday at the home of her son, aged 89 years.

The Goheen Furnace was blown out Monday night and will be shut down indefinitely. This is due to the high price of ores that must be shipped from a distance. Seventy-five men are thrown out of employment.

Charles G. Taylor, actuary in the State Department of Insurance, has tendered his resignation to take effect October 1st, in order to accept a better and far more lucrative position with the Insurance Department of New York.

Miss Anne Magill Fauntleroy, niece of Major Holmes Conrad, of Winchester, has resigned the position of lady principal of the Virginia State Normal, at Farmville, to accept a similar position at Smith College, the institution for the higher education of women, at Northampton, Mass.

Workmen employed by the State to repair the Capitol building erected a few years ago, but already in bad condition, are making many curious discoveries. Close to the workwood of one of the windows was found yesterday a cement bag and near at hand was also a good portion of a mechanic's overalls. The rage had been stuffed into the chink to help fill up space and then covered with stucco. Old newspapers, shavings and sticks are also being dug out of the concrete.

A transaction that involved about $57,000 in cash closed the Baker chocolate litigation that has been in the federal courts of the Western district of Virginia for a number of years. Judge McDowell yesterday confirmed the report of Master Commissioner Sipe, as to the sum due to the Walter Baker Company, of Winchester, as damages accruing from alleged violation of trademark. No appeal was taken from this judgment, and the Winchester defendant made payment. Walter Baker's original suit was for about $200,000.

After a long illness, Mrs. Fannie Keith, wife of Judge James Keith, president of the Court of Appeals, died yesterday morning at her home, at Cathedral Place, in Richmond. Mrs. Keith was about 50 years of age. She was formerly Miss Fannie Morson, of Warrenton. Her father at one time owned the Jefferson Davis mansion, the White House of the Confederacy, now the Confederate Museum in Richmond. Besides her husband, Mrs. Keith is survived by one son, Morson Keith, who is a cadet at the Virginia Military Institute, and one daughter, Mrs. William Oglesby Crockett.
